

I WANT TO

MANIFEST WHAT I WANT

20 Questions to Explore Manifestation

Why I Created This Journal

I'm on a mission to build a community of Deliberate Thinkers, and I want to offer as much support as possible to anyone who is ready to leave their life of mediocrity behind and join us.

What You Can Expect

This journal will help you develop your Deliberate Thinking skills by posing 20 thought-provoking, open-ended questions. In the process of answering these questions, you will actually be changing the pathways in your brain and changing the way you see the world.

Why I Don't Give You the Answers

Because I'm not here to change your mind; I'm here to help you change your own mind. Some of the questions may require a bit of research, which will strengthen your Deliberate Thinking skills even more. (Hint: You can find some of the answers in my posts 😊)

The Goal

To face your limiting beliefs, personify your core values, live with intention, respect other points of view, and stay curious! These life-changing habits will lead you to the fulfilling life you were meant to live.
